

38th AIVC - 6th TightVent- 4th venticool joint conference: “Ventilating healthy low-energy buildings” - Nottingham, September 13-14, 2017

Evaluation report - Summary of main results

The evaluation questionnaire of the 38th AIVC conference: “Ventilating healthy low-energy buildings” was sent out to 170 attendees of the event. The summary of the main outcomes listed below, result from the feedback of 90 participants who filled in the evaluation form.

General outcomes:

- The conference met the expectations of 95% of the participants
- 89% of the participants would recommend the conference to others
- 86% of the participants would attend another conference on this topic

Conference Sessions Content: 97% of the participants agreed that the content of the conference sessions was appropriate and informative

Quality of information presented: 94% of the participants rated the quality of information presented as excellent or satisfactory

Conference Organisation: 95% of the participants agreed that the conference was well organised

Registration Process: 86% of the participants were very or rather satisfied with the registration process

Conference Publicity: 78% of the participants were very or rather satisfied with the conference publicity

Conference Venue: 89% of the participants were very or rather satisfied with the conference venue

Conference Material: 62% of the participants were very or rather satisfied with the conference material provided

Food & beverages: 85% of the participants were very or rather satisfied with the food and beverages

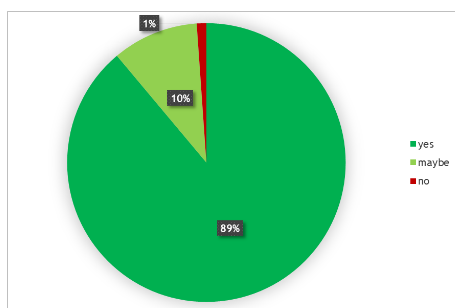

Figure 1: Would you recommend this conference to others?

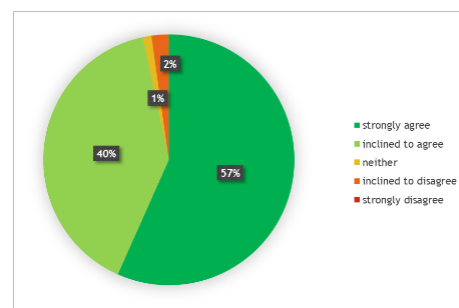

Figure 2: The content of the conference sessions was appropriate and informative